Skin Cancer Cured. Tustimony from the Mayor of Sequin, Tex. SEQUIN, TEX., January 14, 1893.

MESSES. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah,
Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P.
P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer of thirty years' standing, and found great relief: it purifies the blood and removes all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the ritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bettler and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,

REV. DR. TALMAGE

THE NOTED DIVINE'S SUNDAY DISCOURSE.

Subject: "Easter Jubilee."

Text: "Death is swallowed up in victory."-I Corinthians xv., 54. About 1861 Easter mornings have wakened the earth. In France for three centuries the almanacs made the fear begin at Easter until Charles IX made the year begin at Jan. 1. In the Tower of London there is a royal page roll of Edward I, on which there it an entry of eighteen pence for 400 bolored and pictured Easter eggs, with which the people were distributed on Easter. Ecclesiastical councils met at Pontius, at Easter is queen. She wears a richer diadem argument about the resurrection and observed all the laws of logic, but when he served all the laws of logic, our when he came to write the words of the text his fingers and his pen and the per house on which he words took from that he cried out, "Death is a showed up in victory!" It is a worthy of the coming eternities? Put silver flying. They scatter everything valuable on the track. Unwheeled artillery, Hedd or horse on breast of wounded and dying man. You have read of the French falling back from Bedan, or Napoleon's track of 10,000 corpses in the apartments of Russia, or of the five kings Winbling over the rocks of Betheran With their armies, while the hailstorms of heaven and the swords of Joshua's hosts struck them with their fury

But in my text is a worse discomilture. It seems that a black gight proposed to conquer the earth. He gathered for his host all the aches and pains and meladies and dis-tempers and epidemics of the ages. He marched them down, drilling them in the He threw up parricades of grave mound, Be pitched tent of charnel house. Some of the by consumptions of the commanded by consumptions. by consumptical, some in double quick, commanded by pneumonias. Some he took by long besiegement of evil habit and boile queror of conquerors and all the generals and commanders in chief, and all problems and kings and sultans and coars drop under the feet of his war charger.

But one Christmas night his antagonist was born. As most of the plagues and sicknesses and despetisms came out of the east it was appropriate that the new conqueror should come out of the same quarter. Power is given Him to awaken all the fallen of all the centuring and St all lands and marshal them against the black glant. Fields have already been won, but the last day will see the decisive battle. When Christ shall lead forth His two brigades, the brigade of the risen dead and the brigade of the celestial host, the black pient will fall back, and the brigado from the riven sepulchers will take him from eneath, and the brigade of descending imnortals will take him from above, and "death shall be swallowed up in victory."
The old braggart that threatened the conquest and demolition of the planet has lost his throne, has lost his scepter, has lost his palace, has lost his prestige, and the one word written over all the gates of mausoleum and catacomb and necropolis, on cenotaph and sarcophagus, on the lonely cairn of the Arctic explorer and on the catalaque of great cathedral, written in capitals of azalea and calla lily, written in inusical cadence, written in dozology of great assemblages, written on the sculptured door of the family vault, is "Victory." Coronal word, embannered word, apocalyptic word, chief word of riumphal arch under which conquerors return. Victory! Werd shouted at Culloden Balaklava and Blenheim; at Megiddo and Solferino; at Marathon, where the Atheniaus drove back the Medes; at Poictiers, where Charles Martel broke the ranks of the Saracens; at Salamis, where Themistocles in the great sea fight confounded the Persians, and at the door of the eastern cavern of chiseled rock, where Christ came out through a recess and throttled the king of terrors and put him back in the niche from which the celestial conqueror had just emerged. Aha, when the jaws of the eastern mausoleum took down the black giant, "death was swallowed up in victory!"

I proclaim the abolition of death. The old antagonist is driven back into mythology with all the lore about Stygian ferry and Charon with oar and boat. We shall have no more to do with death than we have with the cloakroom at a governor's or president's evee. We stop at such cloakroom and leave in charge of the servant our overcoat, our vershoes, our outward apparel that we may not be impeded in the brilliant round of the drawing room. Well, my friends, when we go out of this world we are going to a king's anquet, and to a reception of monarchs, and at the door of the tomb, we leave the cloak of flesh and the wrappings with which we meet the storms of the world. At the close of our earthly reception, under the brush and broom of the porter, the coat or hat may be handed to us better than when we resigned it, and the cloak of humanity will finally be returned to us improved and brightened and purified and glorified. You and I do not want our bodies returned to us as they are now. We want to get rid of all their weaktigue, and all their slowness of locomotion. They will be put through a chemistry of soil and heat and cold and changing seasons out of which God will reconstruct them as much better than they are now as the body of the rosiest and healthiest child that bounds over the lawn is better than the sickest patient in But as to our soul, we will cross right over, not waiting for obsequies, independent of obituary, into a state in every way better, with wider room and velocities beyond computation; the dullest of us into companionship with the very best spirits in their very best moods, in the very best room of the universe, the four walls furnished and paneled

dors that the infinite God in all ages has been able to invent. Victory! This view of course makes it of but little importance whether we are cremated or sepultured. If the latter is dust to dust, the former is ashes to ashes. If any prefer incineration, let them have it without caricaure. The world may become so crowded Commissioner Miller's Estimate from that cremation may be universally adopted by law as well as by general consent. Many of the mightiest and best of earth have gone of thousands of God's children have been premated. P. P. Bliss and wife, the evange; list singers, cremated by accident at Ashtabula bridge; John Rogers cremated by persecution, Latimer and Ridley cremated at Oxord, Pothinus and Blondina, a slave, and Alexander, a physician, and their comrades, cremated at the order of Marcus Aurelius. At least a hundred thousand of Christ's disciples cremated, and there can be no doubt about the resurrection of their bodies. If the world lasts as much longer as it has already been built, there perhaps may be no room for the large acreage set apart for the resting places, but that time has not come. Plenty of room yet, and the race need not pass that bridge of fire until it comes to it. The most of us prefer the oil way. But whether out of natural disintego ation or cremation we shall get that luminous, buoyant, gladsome, transcendent, magnificent, inexplicable structure called the resurrecetion body you will have it, I will have it. I say to you to-day as Paul said to Agrippa, "Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God whould raise the dead?"

Do you not think that God can do as much for our bodies as He does for the wasps, and the sp ders, and the snails? This morning at half past 4 o'clock there was a resurrection: Out of the night, the day In a few weeks there will be a ressurrection in all our gardens. Why not some day a resurrection amid all the graves? Ever and anon there, are instances of men and women entranead: A trence is death, followed by resurrection by one stroke of the bittled of casualty. With bony hand he will be significantly after a few days—total suspension of mental power and voluntary action. Rev. William Tennent, a great evangelist of the last generation of whom Dr. Archibald Alexander, a man far from being sentimental, wrote in the continents. Rev. William Tennent, a great evangelist of the last generation, of whom Dr. Archibald Alexander, a man far from being sentimental, wrote in also implicated, made his escape. nont comed to die. His spirit seemed to have departed. People came in day after day and said, "He is dead; he is dead." But the soul returned, and William Tennent lived to write out experiences of what he had seen from Greenville-with the two men while his soul was gone. It may be found some time what is called suspended animation or comatose state is brief death, giving the soul an excursion into the next world, from which it comes back-a furlough of a few hours granted from the conflict of life to which it must return. Do not this weking up of men from trance and this waking up of grains buried 3000 years ago make it easier for you to believe that your body and mine, after the vacation of the grave, shall rouse and rally, though there be 3000 years between our last breath and the sounding of the archangelic reveille? Physiologists fell us that, while the most of our bodies are built with such wonderful economy that we can spare nothing, and the loss of a fluger is a hindrance, and the injury of a toe joint makes us lame, still we have two or three apparently useless physit cal apparati, and no anatomist or physiologist has ever been able to tell what they are good for. Perhaps they are the foundation of the resurrection body, worth nothing to us in this state, to be indispensibly valuable in the next state. The Jewish rabbis appear to have had a hint of this suggestion when they said that in the human frame there was a small bone which was to be the basis of the resurrection body. That may have been a delusion. But this thing is certain, the Chris tian scientists of our day have found ou that there are two or three superfluities of the body that are something gloriously sug restive of another state

I called at my friend's house one summ

day I found the yard all piled up with rub

hish of carpenter's and mason's work. Th door was off. The plumbers had torn up the floor The roof was being lifted in cupola All the pictures were gone, and the paper hangers doing their work. All the modern improvements were being introduced into that dwelling. There was not a room in the house fit to live in at that time, although a month before, when I visited that house, everything was so beautiful I could not have suggested an improvement. My friend has gone with his family to the Holy Land, expecting to come back at the end of six months, when the building was to be done. And, oh, what was his joy when at the end of six months he returned and the old nouse was enlarged and improve I and glorifled! That is your body! It loooks well now. All the rooms filled with health, and we could hardly make a suggestion. But after awhile your soul will go to the Holy Land, and while you are gone the old house of your tabernacle will be entirely recor structed from ceilar to attic, every herve. muscle and bone and tissue and artery must be hauled over, and the old structure will be burnished and adorned and raised and coupolant and enlarged, and all the improvements of heaven introduced, and you will move into it on resurred tion day. "For we know that, if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissoived, w have a building of God, a house not madwith hands, eternal in the heavens." Oh, what a day when body and soul meet again! They are very fond of each other. Did your body ever have a pain and your soul not re-echo it? Or, changing the question, did your soul ever have any trouble and your body not sympathize with it, growing wan and weak under the depressing influence? Or did your soul ever have a gladness but your body celebrated it with kindled eye and check and elastic step. Surely God never intended two

A posse, who had charge of the five prisoners, started from Butler Springs -a distance of about sixteen miles and three women at about 10 or 11 o'clock Saturday night, with the object of placing them all in the county jail for trial.

About 3 o'clock Saturday morning, when the posse who had charge of the prisoners reached a lonely place on the road, voices came from both sides of the roadway, commanding them to halt. Seeing they were outnumbered, and being threatened with death, the guard promptly obeyed, when probably a hundred men, with arms in their hands, took the five prisoners from the guards and then and there hung the last one of them to limbs of trees and left their bodles dangling in that position.

RUBE SMITH DEAD.

Rube Burrow's Partner Serves Out

Rube Smith, the southern outlaw and a member of the notorious Burrows gang of desperadoes, died in the state prison at Columbus, Ohio, Saturday afternoon, where he was serving a life sentence imposed by the United States court for the robbery of a mail and express train on the Mobile and Ohio railroad near Buckatunny, Miss., in September, 1889. Burrows, it will be remembered, was fatally shot while resisting arrest for this crime. Smith died of Bright's disease. According to his statement he was innocent.
